

Privacy Policy

Policy Statement

WMP takes its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988 (as amended) seriously and will take all reasonable steps in order to comply with the Act and protect the privacy of the personal information that it holds. This Policy sets out how it intends to do so.

Principles

1. This Policy applies to volunteers, customers, clients, candidates, supporters and staff, who provide us with any personal information.
2. We will take all reasonable steps to protect the security of the personal information we hold. This will include appropriate measures to protect electronic materials and materials stored and generated in hard copy.
3. Personal information is collected for the purpose of:
 - Assessing an individual's suitability for a position or type of job;
 - Business planning purposes, including, but not limited to career path development, the provision of appropriate training opportunities, maintenance of accurate Personnel Files;
 - Processing payments;
 - To comply with our legal requirements, e.g.: Work Cover and taxation obligations.
4. Individuals will be provided with access to the personal information that WMP holds about them whenever they wish.
5. Individuals who have complaints about privacy practices or about how their personal information is managed should contact the President of the management committee, in writing, who shall deal with the matter under the Complaints, Grievance and Disputes Procedure.
6. WMP at times may contract out data storage or processing functions. Should this occur in the future, the organisation undertakes to ensure that measures to protect the information are part of the contract obligations and arrangements with our service providers.

WMP shall hold or may seek to obtain the following information from volunteers or supporters

- Name
- Date of Birth
- Address
- Occupation
- Career history
- Career plans
- References
- Current accreditations, licenses and academic/industry qualifications
- Security/police checks (where appropriate).
- Contact details of next of kin

Please contact admin@thewildmedicproject.com if you have any further queries or concerns.